ADDITIONAL LANGUAGE FOR TITLE V OF THE DRAFT INTELLIGENCE AUTHORIZATION ACT FOR FY '89

This additional subsection should satisfy DOJ objections to Title V. It has been coordinated orally with Bill Cook, DOJ/OIPR, and [redacted] CIA/OCA.

"SEC. 395. General Provisions.

STAT

d. "A commercial entity authorized under this chapter, and the personnel of that entity, may not engage in intelligence collection activities within the United States other than those necessary to support intelligence collection activities outside the United States. Such domestic activities shall be conducted in accordance with agreements for coordination with the Federal Bureau of Investigation."

[section-by-section analysis]

Proposed Subsection 395d ensures that commercial entities created by this chapter can engage in intelligence collection activities within the United States only to the extent necessary to support such activities outside the United States, and only after coordination with the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
